WELCOME

A warm welcome to our newsletter, I hope everyone enjoys reading it.

Would anyone like to join our Committee, it's a pleasant and friendly place to be and you will learn lots, please contact one of us if you are interested?

During the past year we have held a Show in Southampton and you can read about it later. It was in a big airy hall so that cats and humans were comfortable and there were more than adequate refreshments. We shared with two All Breed Shows so there was a good footfall.

Our next Show is to be held in the same venue which is Places Leisure Centre, Eastleigh being held on 10 August 2024. It would be good to see you there. It's very near to the M3 so nice easy access. It will soon be published so think about which cats you wish to bring!

Anyone with anything they wish to say in the Newsletter do please let me have it as soon as you can.

Cynthia Cullin

THE ONE THAT GOT AWAY

Skye and Ruby turned up with a present just shy of Christmas Day.

A little grey mouse appeared in the hall but the 'girls' just wanted to play!

I wondered at first at all the commotion and a horrible screeching sound.

Those girls giving chase all along the passage and them all just rushing around.

Now I must admit when it comes to mice that I am a bit of a "wuss", but I thought to myself "No, not to worry I can surely rely on my puss!"

Well sorry to say that under the stairs we have some storage space.

That little grey mouse took off under there and disappeared at quite a pace!

The girls looked aghast as the mouse went straight past and really what more can I say? Despite all their best efforts it was just 'the one that got away!'

PS. The mouse hasn't been seen since at time of writing - 2nd January 2024

'The girls' are Skye (blue point aged 12 years.)

Ruby (oriental 'Red' Point aged 5 years) and 'Mum' Mary Mary Jarrett.

SOME THOUGHTS AND POEMS

(Authors unknown)

Though you can no longer see me
Think of me and I will be there
To comfort and to love you
For you know how much I care.
Happy years we had together
You loved and sheltered me
Now I shall always be beside you
My spirit soaring high and free.

*****

You always said I was your angel, now it's time to get my wings.

You never know there's a cat shaped hole in your life until you lose the cat that used to fill it.

When you feel me in your heart, just look up. I will be right there.

You know you're mad about cats when your choice of friends is determined whether or not the cat likes them.

I work hard so my cat can have a better life.

I know when you're calling me. I just like to see how many silly sounds you'll make before I turn around.

Feline paralysis. The condition in which a person is unable to move due to the presence of a cat on his or her lap.

Thank you for loving me so much. You made my life wonderful.

Thank you for the food you bring, and for my little squeaky thing.
I thank you for your friendly talks and when you change the litter box.
I thank you for the naps we share, and putting up with tufts of hair.
I thank you for the things you do...

We choose our cats over people who don't treat our kitties right.

It's an unwritten law, one we're not inclined to bend.

Our cats will always come first, tooth and nail, to the end.

Of all the animal kingdom, the cat has the most many-sided character.

Andrew Barton Paterson

Now, even the cat is not devoid of the power of laughing. Man is labouring under a false impression in thinking that the act of laughing is peculiar to his species.

Soseki Natsume

If man could be crossed with the cat it would improve man, but it would deteriorate the cat.

Mark Twain

When I play with my cat, who knows whether she isn't amusing herself with me more than I am with her?

Michel de Montaigne

I know these things will seem marvellous to many men, that cats should understand and speak, have a government among themselves and be obedient to their laws...

William Baldwin

It is thus seen that, with all mammals in the field, none probably is so well armed for the battle of life as is the cat.

Rush Shippen Huidekaper

It is thus seen that, with all mammals in the field, none probably is so well armed for the battle of life as is the cat.

Rush Shippen Huidekaper

It is no easy matter to win a cat's love, for cats are philosophical, sedate, quiet animals, fond of their own way, liking cleanliness and order,
and not apt to bestow their affection hastily.

Theophile Gautier

It is a very inconvenient habit of kittens...that, whatever you say to them, they always purr.

Lewis Carroll

But the wildest of all the wild animals was the Cat. He walked by himself, and all places were alike to him.

Rudyard Kipling

Still the Cat spoke not, probably because cats don't generally speak, except under peculiar circumstances...

Edward Knatchbull Hugessen

....It is a very distinct tribute to be chosen as the friend and confidant of a philisophic cat who is wholly his own master and could easily choose another compantion...

H. P. Lovecraft

He who yields himself to the sweet seductiveness of a cat is beguiled forever...

Agnes Repplier

All cats, no matter what their breed, are born aristocrats.
